March 12, 2026	9:00 AM	4:30 PM

The Philippine Street Food Congress is a nationwide gathering of street food vendors, culinary entrepreneurs, chefs, and food enthusiasts celebrating the rich and diverse street food culture of the Philippines. The event features food exhibitions, live cooking demonstrations, business forums, and networking opportunities that highlight iconic Filipino street food such as kwek-kwek, isaw, fish balls, and regional delicacies.

Participants can explore new food concepts, learn about food safety standards, packaging, and scaling street food businesses for wider markets. The congress also connects vendors with suppliers, investors, and government agencies supporting MSMEs in the food industry. It aims to promote innovation while preserving the authenticity of Filipino street food traditions.
