The Bulacan Heritage Trade Fair is a cultural and trade exhibition that showcases the rich history, traditions, and locally made products of artisans and MSMEs from Bulacan. The fair highlights heritage-inspired crafts, traditional delicacies, woven goods, home décor, and other proudly local products that reflect the province's cultural identity.

Attendees can explore curated exhibits, watch live demonstrations of traditional craftsmanship, and purchase authentic heritage products directly from local makers. The event also serves as a platform for promoting cultural preservation, supporting local entrepreneurship, and strengthening tourism and trade opportunities within the region.
