February 19, 2026	9:00 AM	4:00 PM

The Bulacan Creative Art & Agri-Teris Fair is a provincial showcase that celebrates the rich artistic heritage and thriving agricultural industry of Bulacan. This integrated fair highlights the province's creative talents alongside its agri-based products, promoting culture, tourism, and local enterprise development in one dynamic platform.

The event features exhibits of visual arts, handcrafted products, fashion accessories, home décor, and creative works from local artists and MSMEs. At the same time, participating farmers and agri-entrepreneurs display fresh produce, processed food products, organic goods, and value-added agricultural innovations. The fair encourages collaboration between the creative sector and agri-based industries to produce unique, market-driven products.

Activities may include live art demonstrations, cultural performances, agri-technology presentations, product tastings, and business matching sessions. The event also provides learning sessions on branding, packaging, digital marketing, and agripreneurship to strengthen the competitiveness of local enterprises.

Overall, the Bulacan Creative Art & Agri-Teris Fair aims to promote local pride, stimulate tourism, support MSMEs, and position Bulacan as a hub for creativity and agricultural excellence.
