The Baguio Highland Food and Beverage Fair is a regional showcase event that highlights the unique flavors, agricultural products, and beverage innovations from the highland communities of Baguio City and nearby Cordillera provinces. The fair brings together farmers, food producers, MSMEs, café owners, and local entrepreneurs to promote highland-grown and locally processed food products.

Attendees can explore a variety of exhibits featuring fresh produce, coffee, tea, processed food items, and artisanal beverages. The event also includes tasting sessions, product demonstrations, and business matching opportunities aimed at strengthening market access for local producers and promoting the region's agro-food industry.
